

MEMORIA

Stories with a happy ending from death camps in the heart of Europe.

The burden and the duty of remembering, memories of returning to the homeland, and a stranger singing and weeping under a tree.

The stories of Moshe and Stella come from the book by Yaffa Eliach: Hasidic Tales of the Holocaust.
In the performance there is a quotation from the poem by Paul Celan: Death Fugue.

Actors: Else Marie Laukvik and Frans Winther
